

TELANGANA MEDICAL COUNCIL.

Press Release.

Hyderabad, 26 September 2025

The Telangana Medical Council has taken stern disciplinary action against multiple doctors for professional misconduct and ethical violations under the Indian Medical Council (Professional Conduct, Etiquette and Ethics) Regulations, 2002 and the Telangana Medical Practitioners Registration Act, 1968.

Dr. A. Chaitanya Reddy, Reg No. 54583, Medical Director, OXYCARE Hospital, ECIL – 6 months suspension for sponsoring and associating with unqualified practitioners at a quacks' event in Bhuvanagiri.

Dr. M. Goutham Reddy, Reg No. 42594, Medical Director, OMNI Hospital, Kothapet – 6 months suspension for hospital sponsorship for the same quacks' meeting.

Dr. K.V. Mallikarjuna Rao, Reg No. 42599, Medical Director, EVYA Hospitals, Vanasthalipuram – 6 months suspension for sponsoring an event with unqualified practitioners.

Dr. Kannaiah Thallapally, Reg No. 59133, Livyoung Clinic, Jubilee Hills – 1 year suspension for misrepresenting himself as a qualified cosmetologist/hair transplant surgeon without recognized qualifications.

Dr. K. Uma Maheshwar, Reg No. APMC/FMR/88902, Padmavathi Neuro & Multi-Specialty Hospital, Sangareddy – 6 months suspension for displaying unrecognized medical qualifications not approved by NMC.

All five doctors have been directed to surrender their registration certificates within 10 days, failing which their names will be permanently removed from the Medical Register. The Council has also recommended that concerned hospitals' registrations be reviewed or cancelled by health authorities for endangering public health.

These actions reflect the Council's zero-tolerance policy towards unethical practices, quackery, and misrepresentation, and reaffirm its commitment to safeguarding patient safety and upholding the dignity of the medical profession.

Final order copies uploaded on the TGMC website.
